Storms and Blizzards in the East—A New Military Invention, &c.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Winnipeg, Oct. 19—A snow storm of phenomenal range, viz: from Lake Superior to the Rockies, raged all day yesterday. Had the weather been cold it would have been called a blizzard.

Halifax, Oct. 19—A thunder storm swept over the province yesterday, destroying many houses and barns, knocking down the steeple of the Baptist Church at Yarmouth and killing a number of cattle and horses and striking dead Sam McDonald, a young man at Hopewell.

ONTARIO.

Smallpox Increasing in Toronto—Chapleau's Banquet a Failure.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Toronto Oct. 19—Despite the precautions taken smallpox is making headway. There was another case yesterday.

Capt. Greville Harstone, Royal Grenadiers, has patented an invention for converting Martini Henrys into magazine rifles. The British authorities will adopt the device in converting stock rifles.

Ottawa, Oct. 19—The Department of Marine and Fisheries is passing a set of regulations for British Columbia salmon fisheries in accordance with proposals made by the Victoria Board of Trade.

The Chapleau banquet was not a success. The attendance was small and there was little enthusiasm. All the ministers were there except Tupper and Caron.

QUEBEC.

A Savage Attack on the Bench—Cause of the Suicide.

Special to THE TIMES.]

Montreal, Oct. 19—La Presse, Independent Conservative and labor paper, published yesterday a sweeping attack on the judges of the Montreal district, accusing them of inefficiency. Johnson, senior of the Superior Court, is especially singled out for abuse, and his integrity and impartiality is questioned. The judges will meet to-day to decide what action they will take.

Quebec, Oct. 19—The Attorney General has instructed the law officers to indict aldermen and others implicated in water works boodling of two years ago.

A reward of twelve hundred dollars is offered by the Government for the capture of the outlaw Morrison.

At the inquest on Count Primeo Real it transpired he was relieved from the consulship because he was concerned in the recent Cuban filibustering expedition. He loaded at an expense of twenty thousand dollars to himself, a schooner with arms and ammunition. The schooner was captured by a Spanish war vessel. Senior Lluch, Vice Consul at Halifax, succeeds him.

MOODY'S MEETINGS.

The Services Yesterday—A Large Crowd at the Rink.

The usual large crowd attended at the roller rink to listen to Mr. Moody on Thursday evening. Last night's services were more earnest than the previous ones. The rink was heated by stoves, which added much to the comfort of everyone. At 8 o'clock, after the usual preliminary services of singing and prayer, Mr. Moody, taking for his text 10th chap. Romans, 9-11 verses, expounded the subject of "What a Man Must do to be Saved." He must confess Christ with the mouth and not be ashamed of His Lord and Master. Peter when he said to the Saviour, "Thou Art the Son of God," acknowledged Him. Joseph, the rich and wealthy, and Nicodemus, the learned, acknowledged the Lord Christ in the Council of the High Priests. The Queen's soldiers were not ashamed of their sovereign's uniform, a man ashamed of the uniform is not fit for the army of Jesus Christ. Hundreds there are present who feel convicted of sin but are too cowardly to confess to the Lord Jesus. If men had only courage they would tear down and empty the vile dens of Victoria in twenty-four hours. These sneerers and scoffers of God and His only begotten son in our midst, who gloried in their shame, and men had not courage to face them and hoot down their iniquity. Men in Victoria were ashamed to be seen going to church with their Bibles in their hands. No wonder there were scoffers and mockers. The speaker instanced the blind beggar mentioned in the Gospel of St. John, who was not afraid or ashamed to confess to the Lord. If the people of Victoria had courage they would tear down the brilliant halls, saloons and other dens of vice and shame, and build up their churches. It was a grand thing to confess to the Lord. Those who wished to confess Him and stand up for Him now were earnestly asked to do so.

Many stood up and confessed. Some more zealous than others were making a long confession, but were very properly, prevented by Mr. Moody, who only wanted "yes" or "no." A great number sought the consolation of the enquiry room. The meeting broke up after singing and the pronouncing of the benediction.

The afternoon services at Pandora street Methodist Church are largely attended, and which are daily on the increase. The services to-day were very successful. There will be the usual meeting at 8 o'clock this evening at the rink. Choir practice at 7:30.

Shorthand and Typewriting.

Attention is drawn to the advertisement of Messrs. Jones & Co., in another column. These gentlemen came to our city very highly recommended, as to character and ability, and no doubt will be welcomed by those of our business men in need of such help in the transaction of business. They are first-class stenographers and rapid operators of that useful machine, the typewriter, and they purpose taking dictation of business letters at the offices of the patrons, executing the remainder of the work at their own office. Thus those of our citizens who have not sufficient work to warrant the permanent engagement of a shorthander, may, for a moderate fee, secure from Messrs. Jones & Co. all the benefits derivable from such a source.

NEW. WESTMINSTER.

The Railway—Smallpox Among the Indians.

Special to THE TIMES.]

New Westminster, Oct. 19—A party of surveyors are at work cross sectioning Hylton square, and taking levels in connection with the New Westminster Southern railway depot in this city. Mr. Hill, chief engineer, is hourly expecting orders to proceed with the earth work road. About three-fourths of the line on the west side will carry a light bank, namely 10 to 13 feet, and the company are aiming to have that portion graded before the commencement of spring floods. Mr. Hill also states that the finances of the Company are in a very satisfactory condition.

Mr. McTiernan, Indian Agent, received a dispatch to-day from the Chief of Vancouver police, stating that smallpox had broken out among the Indians in Squamish River. Mr. McTiernan left this afternoon for Howe Sound in order to ascertain the condition of affairs.

The case of Claudie, charged with receiving goods, knowing them to have been stolen, was tried to-day by Hon. Mr. Justice McCreight, under the Speedy Trials' Act. The prisoner was remanded until Tuesday next for sentence.

THE SAANICH EXHIBITION.

A Good Display of Grain—Good Attendance—Good Weather.

The annual Exhibition of the Saanich Agricultural Society was held yesterday. The show bills stated that this was the 20th annual fair in Saanich, but this is contradicted by the memory of several of the oldest residents who inaugurated the custom. They state that the first show was held in 1868, the same year as the farmers of Cowichan organized for similar purposes and consequently the gathering of yesterday was the twenty-first of its kind held by the farmers of Saanich. Be that as it may, the society has gone on prospering and the scope and quality of the exhibits increasing commensurate with the advancement of the district, from year to year. The show was held this year under very auspicious circumstances. The crops have been unusually good, more grain being garnered throughout the province than in any year of its history. The date was particularly well chosen at a time when the rush of harvest work was over, when the fruits of the soil; the corn field and orchard were in their prime and when the farmer had leisure to make the necessary preparation of his exhibits. Then the weather of yesterday was beautiful, nature smiling with evident satisfaction on the work of her hands, a fruitful autumn, a happy and prosperous people. Of all the excellent displays, that of grain was most conspicuous. The quantity was not very large but all of such uniform excellence that the judges found it difficult to come to a decision in awarding the prizes. Roots were good. Of apples and pears, a very fine variety were shown. So conspicuous were the size of many that Mr. Moody, who was among the visitors, remarked that British Columbia seemed to grow fruits in proportion to the size of its trees. In addition, &c., the products of the dairy and fancy work, this appeared to be an off year. There was plenty of good home-made bread, but beyond this, the departments to which the ladies generally contribute were not as well filled as the writer has seen them in former years. Fancy work has of course not very much to do with agriculture. The number of stock on the grounds were larger than usual. There were many graded cattle and some thoroughbreds—Durhams and Jerseys—which are gradually becoming more plentiful every year. Some fine horses were shown, the best stallions being owned by Messrs. Simpson, Jones, & McNeill and W. White. The hogs and sheep were not numerous, but were very fine animals. Fowls were fair. Taken altogether the meeting was successful, as well financially as otherwise. A large number drove from the city during the day and enjoyed a few hours among the farmers and were recipients of the courteous attentions of the officers of the association. The officers are: J D Bryant, vice-president; F Imrie, vice-president; G A McTavish, Secretary; J T McIlmoyl, Treasurer. Committee—S Roberts, S Sandover, W White, D McDonald, D R Ker, H Brackman, Wm Thomson. During the day an excellent lunch was spread in the rear of the agricultural hall by the ladies. It is no flattery to say that those who were in charge are the queens of caterers. In the evening the hall was cleared for the ball which was attended by a large number of young people from the city. The music was supplied by the Queen City Band orchestra. During the evening a magnificent supper was spread in the dining room of the hall. Everybody enjoyed themselves and returned home satisfied, as they always do, from Saanich. In addition to the list of prizes published yesterday the following were awarded:

Best barrel beer, Victoria Brewery; 2nd, Phœnix Brewery.

Special prizes—Celery and radish, R John; wine, Mrs Rudland; fruit and fruit; dryer, J T Dunlop; pianos and organs, H Peters; furniture, Cherry & Creech. The latter had a very fine set of furniture on exhibition. Miss Peters enlivened the proceedings during the day with music.

Incoming Passengers.

San Francisco, Oct. 19—Passengers by Umatilla for Victoria: J T Thomas, J Andrew, J T Eastwood, J Jewell, C James, A Harvey, W H Nash, Miss J Morse, W Briggs, Miss L Checker, C T Martin, Mrs Muir, Miss R Stuart, Miss A Bray, Miss E Layton, Miss M Jenkins, W L Van Harlinger Jr, E Lang and wife, J Merritt, W H Hall, C Harborg, L Glary, Mrs A E Gregg, Miss A E Leach, and H Cameron.

Geological Survey.

Dr. Dawson, of the Geological survey, arrived in the city last night from Kamloops, where he has been employed during the past summer. A new geological map of that district of which Kamloops is the center, will shortly be issued by the Government, which will be the result of Dr. Dawson's summer explorations. The Doctor is sanguine that in the country referred to, there will be important mining developments before long. After spending a few days in Victoria Dr. Dawson will leave for Ottawa, where the winter will be spent in elaborating his notes and preparing reports.

Remich Pianos.

We have a consignment of these renowned great pianos on the way of new designs and request intending buyers to wait and examine them before buying. Remich pianos have now been ten years in use in B. C. and give universal satisfaction. C. A. LOMBARD.

ALL THE WORLD OVER.

More of the Whitechapel Horrors—The Bloodhounds Lost—Ex-Pres. of Hayti Dead.

A Quasi Rebellion in Winnipeg—Paymaster Killed—A Woman For Mayor.

London, Oct. 19—George Lush, head of the White Chapel vigilance committee, received a box on Tuesday night containing a meaty substance. A note accompanied the box, and stated that it was half the kidney taken from one of the murdered women. The box was taken to the London Hospital and Dr. Openshaw said the contents certainly came from a full grown woman. The ghastly package is now at Scotland Yard.

ASPHYXIATED.

San Francisco, Oct. 19—Joseph Luzer and his wife Julia, an elderly and well to do German couple, accidentally turned the gas on before retiring on Wednesday night and were discovered in a dying condition last evening. Luza will die and hopes for his wife's recovery are small.

FLOOD RECOVERING.

San Francisco, Oct. 19—A despatch received late last night from Heidelburg, Germany, reports the condition of J. C. Flood, the millionaire, as greatly improved and there are reasonable prospects of his recovery.

SIR JOHN SPEAKS.

Ottawa, Oct. 19—At a banquet given here last night in honor of the Secretary of State, Sir John Macdonald made a speech wherein he said that Canada must keep cool. If a new fishery treaty cannot be negotiated, Canada must revert to the treaty of 1818 and be willing to submit an interpretation thereof to arbitration.

BLOODHOUNDS LOST.

London, Oct. 19—Scotland Yard officials announce that the bloodhounds used to trace the Whitechapel murderer have been lost. When let loose on the last run they were lost sight of altogether.

A WOMAN FOR MAYOR.

New York, Oct. 19—Mrs. Cynthia Leonard has accepted the nomination for Mayor, offered by the woman's suffrage party of this city.

BAD RAILWAY ACCIDENT.

Pittsburg, Oct. 19.—At Washington, Pen., this morning the train bound west on the B. and O. road bound for Pittsburg, ran into the open switch in the heart of the train. The baggage car and two sleepers were piled on top of each other. The engineer and one passenger were killed and the fireman is dying. From 5 to 20 passengers are reported injured.

SALAMON DEAD.

Paris, Oct. 19—General Salamon, ex-President of Hayti, is dead.

PAYMASTER AND GUARD SHOT.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., Oct. 19—A tragedy was committed in a stretch of woods near here to-day. Alexander M. Chare, paymaster for Contractor McFadden, who is building a branch road for the Lehigh Valley Railway, was on his way to the work this morning accompanied by a body guard. He had $20,000 to pay the men. He was shot by three masked men in ambush. The body guard was also murdered. All the money is missing. Three Italians are suspected and a posse is in pursuit.

BECOMING DESPERATE.

New York, Oct. 19—A Winnipeg special says: People here are anxious to learn from the local government if they won't defy the Canadian Pacific Railway in their effort to stop the Northern Pacific from crossing their track. If they do hundreds will turn out and blow up the obstructions and stand guard until the crossing is effected. Dynamite is greatly talked of. The Premier stated to-day that to provide against future contingencies the provincial government had telegraphed the Dominion Government of the exasperated condition of the people and washed its hands of consequencies that must follow if the Government does not call off the Canadian Pacific Railway.

PROCEEDINGS IN CONGRESS.

Washington, Oct. 19—The House met this morning but was unable to transact any business as Kilgore, of Texas, and Turner, of Georgia, objected to all requests to consider the bills. Kilgore announced that the President had more bills to consider than he could well dispose of before the time of adjournment. The House adjourned until 11 o'clock to-morrow morning.

LONG JOHN'S FUNERAL.

Chicago, Oct. 19—The funeral services over the remains of the late Hon. John Wentworth were held this morning. In the funeral cortege were Mayor Roche, Robert T. Lincoln and many other distinguished citizens.

COURT IMPOSED UPON

San Francisco, Oct. 19—When U.S. Circuit Judge Sawyer this morning called the cases of the two Chinese by the steamer Parthia, who secured writs of habeas corpus yesterday on the ground that they were merchants, and who, on being examined by the custom house officials, were found to be coolies, the attorney for the Chinese asked for a postponement. The judge granted a continuance until this afternoon, at the same time remarking that the court had been imposed upon in these cases and that some one will have to suffer for the imposition.

NO PASSAGE.

Rome, Oct. 19—The Emperor visited the parade ground this morning and witnessed manœuvers of the Bersagliers. A banquet was given last night in honor of the Emperor. General Pelloux, commander of the Alpine division of the Italian army, made a speech in which he said the watchword of that division was "no passage this way." He expressed the hope that the frontier would not be attacked.

BERNHARDT AND THE BISHOP.

Paris, Oct. 19—The Roman Catholic Bishop of Amsterdam has ordered an admonition to be read from the pulpits enjoining the faithful from seeing Bernhardt in "La Tosca." The objection is that the play is irreligious.

Shot While Hunting.

A young man named Goodwin, who is in the employ of the H. B. Company, was shot in the shoulder last evening by the accidental discharge of the gun. He was out in Saanich hunting for grouse at the time of the accident. After being hurt he walked to Mrs. Turgoose's and from there was brought to the city and taken to the Royal Hospital. The doctor thinks he will be round again in about three weeks.

FROM VANCOUVER.

Strange Conduct—Accidents—Wrestling, Personals, &c.

From our own Correspondent.]

Vancouver, Oct. 18—The weather is fine but somewhat cloudy.

The Premier arrived late last evening with a quantity of freight and a number of passengers.

The steamer Mexico arrived from San Francisco last evening with 35 tons miscellaneous local freight and about 230 tons consigned to eastern points.

The stakes in the Richardson-Cameron wrestling match were paid over by the stakeholders yesterday to Richardson, Cameron having withdrawn the protest entered on the evening of the contest. Richardson has again challenged Cameron to another match for $500 a side, catch-as-catch-can. Police Gazette rules to govern, and the match to take place any day between the 1st and 20th of Dec. next. It is very probable that Cameron will accept the challenge, as he is anxious to try conclusions with Richardson.

Yesterday Joe Perkins, a young man in the employ of Albert Matheson, the job printer, had his hand smashed by getting it caught between the bed and the face of the type of one of the presses in his employer's office. Joe has been very unfortunate of late, as this is the second accident that has occurred to him within a few days.

The Vancouver Foundry and Iron Works are kept very busy. They have the contract for the iron work of the False Creek bridge, the greater part of which is expected to be completed this week. The company find it necessary to make extensive additions to their works, which will double the capacity of the establishment. Extra side tracks are to be put in and numerous improvements made. The success which has attended this factory since its commencement reflects great credit upon the energetic manager, Mr. A. McKelvie, and may be regarded as a criterion of what enterprise and pluck may accomplish in this new and thriving city.

The Moodyville planing mill has recommenced running night and day and a number of extra hands have been employed for the night shift.

The Masonic Lodge of this city has been officially notified of the appointment of Rt. W. Bro. Isaac Oppenheimer to the honorable position of District Deputy Grand Master of the New Westminster District, known as District No. 2.

The carelessness of teamsters and expressmen is every day becoming more manifest in the frequency of runaway teams. Scarcely a day passes without being marked by one or more runaways, and it has been more by good luck than by good management that some serious accident has not occurred. If a penalty were inflicted on those persons who leave their horses standing on the streets it would do much towards checking the evil, and would prove a greater safety to transients than the hounding down and securing of an ordinary drink.

Our police have been exercising marked vigilance in the direction of Dupont street of late. Last week they made two successful raids on the Chinese gambling dens, and last night they swooped down upon the houses of ill-fame and to-day the city treasury swells with $475 exacted as fines from the mistresses and inmates of the latter.

Mrs. T. Story and Miss Georgia, of Victoria, arrived in this city last evening from Seattle, and are stopping at the Hotel Vancouver. Mr. R. A. Anderson, of the real estate firm of R. A. Anderson & Co., returned from Victoria on the Yosemite.

Mr. Beveridge, of the News-Advertiser staff, has been confined to his room at the Stewart House for the past few days with a severe cold. It is to be hoped that he will soon be able to be around again, as his genial countenance is much missed on our streets.

It is stated that the new school in the west end bog is to be opened on Monday next if in the meantime the problem of how to get the scholars there without boats can only be solved. Some suggest that an air line be built; others that they go around by way of English Bay and enter from the rear. The heads of those who were so short sighted as to select such a site should be placed at the crossing for stepping-stones, but they would be too soft and their bodies used to fill up the swamp. No censure is too severe for men who could be so blind to the dearest interests of posterity as to compel it to spend its school days in a bog.

On Wednesday last a man registered at the Hastings Hotel as — Horne, and took rooms for an indefinite period. Shortly afterwards he picked up a copy of THE TIMES of the 6th instant, and on reading over the S.S. Batavia's passenger list jumped up and exclaimed, "I must go to San Francisco." He and an unknown woman got into a carriage at the door and started in the direction of the city, but where they disappeared to no one seems to know. His strange conduct has caused considerable comment and roused the curiosity of those who witnessed it.

This morning a teamster named D. McRae was kicked by a vicious horse. Dr. McAlpine was called, but concluded that the injury was not serious.

POLICE COURT.

[Before Hon. A. N. Richards, Q.C.]

A. J. Langley was charged with riding a bicycle on Humboldt street. Fined $5 and cost.

Joseph Phœnix, charged with wanton cruelty to animals. Fined $5 and costs.

SPORTING NEWS.

The Canadians in England defeated Northampshire at Wellington, on Tuesday, by three to two. Two thousand spectators were present. On Wednesday the Cannucks tried the University team at Oxford for one goal each.

Central Coal Yard.

We learn that the business of the Central Coal Yard, the oldest and largest of the kind in the city, has been disposed of to the other four dealers in Wellington coal, and that the company will hereafter discontinue operations. Difficulties in connection with the management is understood to be the cause. The change will be greatly in the interest of the remaining dealers.

THE DUAL POSITIONS.

Once more we take the opportunity to inform Mr. DUCK that he is abusing the privileges the people have conferred upon him. His conduct in attempting to retain the two positions is that of an unscrupulous partizan. He does so in obedience to the dictates of a political clique, and in opposition to the well-understood wishes of the people. Let Mr. SIMEON DUCK take counsel, and stop playing with fire, otherwise it may burn him. The incumbent of the office of City Treasurer requires to have the fullest confidence of the people. He is the servant of many masters. If Mr. DUCK, however, wishes to make things unpleasant for himself, and to estrange from him the good will of former political friends as well as opponents he will persist in the course he is now pursuing. In the end it will prove disastrous to Mr. DUCK and no good will be done to the city. Throughout this whole business some people think they detect an effort of the wire-pullers to introduce provincial politics into municipal matters. We are not sure they are not right.

EDITORS OUGHT TO BE MEN.

Notwithstanding the smooth words of the Vancouver World, in its issue of the 18th, there is a purpose in its utterances and a meaning between the lines, that is unmistakable. The cruel claws are scarcely hid by the velvet paw. Nevertheless we are gratified to learn that the World will not intentionally do a cowardly and unprofessional act, although it immediately follows up this declaration by the cowardly and contemptible insinuations that THE TIMES has "abused" politicians (meaning Mr. DUNSMUIR) and that we have treated them as "brutes to be kicked at and spat upon." It seems that the government press has constituted itself a court to try and condemn THE TIMES and the recent convert appears to be the most slanderous and vindictive of the unholy combination. The personal and political animus of the new "organ" is further manifested by a comparison of its references to the two libel cases—the one against the TIMES by Mr. DUNSMUIR and the other against the Colonist by Mayor GRANT. In the first case an effort is made to prejudice our position by unworthy insinuations, if not by direct misrepresentations; while in the latter a bare announcement that an action had been entered is considered sufficient information for the public.

THE IRISH LAND QUESTION.

From recent dispatches we learn that the irreconcilable MICHAEL DAVITT protests against the proposed Liberal plan for the government of Ireland and will, he says, accept of no plan that does not include the power of the Irish parliament to deal with the land question and fix the rate of compensation. Any parliament elected on the present franchise in Ireland, where the landed interest would be scarcely represented, would to all fair thinking minds, be an unfair tribunal as far as the landlord interest goes. It would be very good for the tenants but very bad for the landlords, many of whom purchased their lands through the Encumbered Estates Court and whose titles were guaranteed by the state. The proposal of Mr. DAVITT will scarcely meet with approval on this side of the Atlantic, especially with property holders. The effect of such legislation would loosen the hold of land owners on the continent of America and go far to hasten the spread of the doctrines preached by HENRY GEORGE and Dr. MCGLYNN. New countries with the example of Ireland before them should frame their land laws and regualtions so as to prevent the acquirement of large tracts of land by single individuals.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The poor unfortunate who committed suicide last night said this was "a cold world." It would be thoughtless and unfeeling to turn the words of a dying man into a joke, but at the same time it must be confessed that these words are very suggestive just now.

Philadelphia Record: In our mind's eye we see the unspanked baby king of Spain, with a little tin sword on his thigh, cavorting before the adorable queen, his mother, in mimicry of war. Then it is we turn a look of admiration upon Kaiser Wilhelm, who also is young but who on the bloody parade grounds of Europe has proved himself a veteran of the deepest dye.

The statement contained in a special telegraphed to THE TIMES last week, to the effect that in three elections to the legislature in Ontario, the Conservatives had gained two seats, was incorrect. East Elgin returned a reformer and East Northumberland and Frontenac, Conservatives so that the position of things is not altered from what it was before the vacancies occurred.

It appears that the proposal of Mr. Hugh Robertson, of Joggins' raft fame, to come to British Columbia, resulted from a desire expressed in New Brunswick for an export duty on logs, in order to prevent timber from being carried out of the country in the unmanufactured state. In an interview in St. John the other day Mr. Robertson stated to a reporter that his business would be ruined if the export duty was levied.

Whatever the outcome of the controversy between Dr. Mackenzie and the German physicians, it will not inspire public confidence in the skill and knowledge of medical men. It is not creditable to a noble profession to find two of its leading representatives quarreling over the treatment of the case of Emperor Frederick. Ordinary people will come to the conclusion that neither of the two doctors are infallible and possibly both may have bungled.

Sir John, speaking at a banquet given to Chaplean in Ottawa, said that now that the treaty is rejected the government would adhere to the convention of 1818. The tall talk in the states was merely election vaporings, and he believed after next month the United States government would be disposed to discuss the matter rationally. If no settlement could be arrived at then the government would be willing to submit to a competent tribunal to decide whether the Canadian interpretation of the treaty of 1818 was a proper one.

The recent "slogging" contest in Vancouver will be the last exhibition of that sort of brutality at the terminal city. Public opinion is no doubt opposed to that kind of rowdyism, but a lax enforcement of the law permitted the contest to take place in face of the unanimous disapproval of the citizens. We are glad to learn that there will be no more vulgar exhibitions, and that the good name of Vancouver—for in many ways it is an exemplary city—will not again be dragged in the dirt by the few so-called "sports" to be found there as in all well regulated communities.

Although the discussion on the subject of marriage has been closed in the columns of the London Daily Telegraph, the controversy which has been excited has by no means ceased. A new work is about to be published in England on the present marriage laws, which is likely to create considerable talk, judging from the ground which the author lays down as the basis of his arguments, and which might lead one to suppose he is a woman. He says: "I am prepared to express a very strong opinion that some relaxation of the bond of marriage, even beyond that which is conceded by the present law of England, is required in the interest of justice, social expediency, and true morality, and is not inconsistent with the declarations of revealed religion. With regard to polygamy, as a matter of principle, it is not condemned or prohibited in the pages of the Bible—neither in the Old Testament nor in the New. This fact is plain and unquestionable; and the inference is inevitable—that polygamy is not essentially opposed to the law of God, nor to the fundamental principles of marriage; it is not opposed to the law of Christ. There is room for the opinion which has been expressed by many thoughtful and earnest men, that in some particular cases, a limited form of polygamy might be desirable and permissable; that, under certain circumstances, a man might be properly allowed to take a second wife, even while the first was still living, and not formally divorced from him. There is this very serious question to be answered, "Do we really practise anything like strict monogamy among ourselves? How much polygamy in its worst form really prevails among all classes of society?"

KEEP THE AISLES FREE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—Will you permit me to suggest to the managers and ushers of the Roller Rink services, the impropriety and impolicy of placing chairs in any portion of the aisles and passages of the building? The aisles have been obviously reduced to the smallest size consistent with safety, and are neither more nor larger than sufficient to afford means of rapid egress in case of necessity, to the large audiences which assemble to listen to Mr. Moody's impressive and eloquent addresses. If any zealous clergyman thinks that his more influential friends or parishioners are not favorably nor suitably placed amongst the general audience, let him by all means advise them either to come a little earlier, or invite them to seats on the platform with himself. At least he should not encumber the passages with chairs noisely obtained that they may be a little more comfortably or favorably placed. TEMPUS.

SQUATTERS NOT SATISFIED.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—An extract from the Columbian in your last stated that the squatters on land to be sold by auction on 23rd inst., at Vancouver, were satisfied with valuations put on their improvements. I think none of us knew till the 12th October what the amount was, so how could the Columbian know. I don't think that any of them told that paper they were satisfied. As we have only been allowed about one-third of the actual cash spent, how could we be satisfied? Be careful of Columbian statements. Is it quite fair and safe that an appraiser should also be the auctioneer? UNSATISFIED.

ASK THE WORLD.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—Can you inform me if the Mr. McLagan who publishes the World is the same person of that name who was chiefly instrumental in organizing the Liberal Association of Victoria? Our McLagan was a dyed-in-the-wool Grit from away back, and I am curious to know if it is the same gentleman who now publishes a Tory paper in Vancouver. If it is not another case of Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde, can you tell your readers where McLagan, the Liberal has gone to. LIBERAL.

OUR GREAT REGENERATORS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

In this naughty world, and, as some would fain have us believe, this very naughty city of ours, what a deal of cant, hypocrisy and self-destruction there is—men, aye, and women, too, posing as moral regenerators and searching to find the smallest mote in their neighbor's eye, entirely ignorant of the colloseal beam in their own. Stores are built, fitted up and stocked from the money tricked from the women folk by truckling to their fancy, or playing upon their weakness and known ignorance of the case value of the goods they are seeking to buy, and yet, forsooth, let one of we masculines indulge in a glass of beer, we are under the ban and anathematized. It seems to me a pity that our daily papers cannot find some more entertaining matter to fill their columns than the printing of sayings and doings of a few almost cranks on their hobby and fanatics in their zeal. What, in the name of the news we pay for, does the general public care for the views, ideas, sayings, or doings of a Bedlam full of such people anent temperance, public morals or any other topic they choose to discuss? Why should a newspaper reader be afflicted with such a raphsody for instance, as that of a speaker a few nights ago at a temperance meeting, a veretiable Jeremiah lamenting the fallen state of Victoria, because its municipal coffers were so substantially filled by the licensed victuallers. A fool running the pace of Maud S. could see through the whole drift. Shop! shop! shop! What a mighty monarch is humbug, when even a plumber, the adroit handler of the gaff and the duck-wing, steps on the arena divested of all but soft solder and becomes the champion of the Zealot and the puritan in their extreme notions of Sabbath observance in this already too quiet city. Let it not be supposed that I am sneering at the noble men and women who with great self-denial have shown and still continue to show a signal devotion in ameliorating the misery of others. Their conduct is born of the pure Christ charity. How little of invective or abuse in their utterances? How little of personal spite is manifested in the endeavor to accomplish their end, and above all no interference through self-interested motives with the conduct of others. If our moral regenerators were persons of this type how willingly should we concede to them the noble tribute they would deserve. But what does the reversed picture show? Some whose timeserving syoophancy has frequently secured them fat billets, nearly sinecures as regards the duties required; others whose recent advent amongst us, modesty should teach to be more guarded in their abusive invective against any class of the community. Especially be it remembered that the phillipics are launched by men, who toil not, neither do they spin, yet neither do publicans or average sinners enjoy the world's comforts like unto them.

And again look at our editors: How skilfully they lay their plans. How pure their dodges seem, as if they had the the cleanest hands and their past had never been in these characters I have sought to portray. I leave it to the world to say whether the leech quality is most exemplified, in men who are living off the sweat and toil of their fellows or in a respectable body of men doing business legalised by centuries of usage, paying exhorbitant revenues to every government, and, with few exceptions law-abiding and respectable. So well do I love personal freedom of action that I have no objection to any person indulging in a pet hobby, even though it be the offspring of the most erratic of brains, if in that indulgence they but observe the principle of doing unto others as they would have others do unto them. Let the advocates of prohibition rant; let ministers of every creed known to man strive to gain proselytes; but let them remember that, there are certain bounds men of sense will not allow them to overleap; neither let them in their orating do despite to the spout of the age, or assuredly they will be deemed but as sounding brass and a tinkling cymbal. S.

CITY AND PROVINCE.

—Furred Tongue and Impure Breath are two concomitants of biliousness remedied by Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. Heartburn, which harasses the dyspeptic after meals, and all the perplexing and changeful symptoms of established indigestion, are dispersed by this salutary corrective tonic and celebrated blood purifier. *

—Mr. R. A. Harrison, Chemist and Druggist, Dunnville, Ont., writes: "I can with confidence recommend Northrop & Lyman's Vetetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure for Dyspepsia, Impure Blood, Pimples on the Face, Biliousness, and Constipation—such cases having come under my personal observation." *

—Those intolerably painful and constantly harassing things called piles, which trouble so many people, are soon healed by Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil—the great external remedy for physical suffering and means for relieving pains. A very small quantity achieves results of the most gratifying kind. *

—C. C. Jacobs, Buffalo, an employee of the U. S. Express Co., says: Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil cured him of a bad case of Piles of 8 years standing, having tried almost every known remedy, "besides two Buffalo physicians," without relief; but the Oil cured him; he thinks it cannot be recommended too highly. *

—Worms cause feverishness, moaning and restlessness during sleep. Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator is pleasant, sure and effectual. If your druggist has none in stock, get him to procure it for you. *

—Is there anything more annoying than having your corns stepped upon? Is there anything more delightful than getting rid of it? Holloway's Corn Cure will do it. Try it and be convinced. *

Alberni Jottings.

This settlement is on the tip-toe of expectation as word has been received that A. Broder & Co. are to commence the erection of a large saw mill as soon as they can get things on the ground.

We have had considerable rain here lately, but taking it all through this has been a very fine season, and crops have abundant, specially potatoes, ripe berries of the second crop are frequently met with both in the garden and woods.

Your correspondent has heard some whispers lately of a move being made to form this place into a municipality, and he is inclined to think it would be a good good thing, for a great deal of the money granted by the government has been worse than wasted. Some roads costing hundreds of dollars were built one year and abandoned the next, and those that are not abandoned are not in a condition to be traveled upon during the wet part of the season. A general cry is being heard for a bridge across the Somas, as crossing the rive this time of the year in a canoe is anything but safe.

One would think that the subsidy granted to run a boat to this place had no conditions attached to it, as the boat has no set time for running and in fact only comes when it suits the owner's convenience.

Game is quite plentiful here. Two large panthers were killed lately in the heart of the settlement. The agent of the B. C. Fire Insurance company has been making his rounds and I hear several have been getting insured.

RANDOM REMARKS.

Court House and Other Improvements—A Pessimists View.

Kamloops, Oct. 13—Victoria Avenue the principal street in town, is being graded from the H. B. store at the west end of town to a point in front of the new Masonic Temple, on the new town site. It is difficult to say whether incorporation was at the bottom of this enterprise, or whether it was the plethora of prisoners in the county jail. Probably both of these features had something to do with it, and that is all the light I can possibly throw on the subject. Since last spring the court house has undergone a transformation outside and inside. The externals consist of paint and a picket fence with a grass plot for a background. The internal arrangements of the court house, notably the court room, have been altered and painted to meet the demands of an enlightened taste, all of which attests the energy of Mr. Hussey, ably seconded by his subordinates.

Among the innovations of the last term of court was the removal of the benches from the hotel porches. Pedestrians now can pass on their way without stumbling over the pontoons of loungers.

It may appear slightly superrogatory for an outsider to chip in with respect to the removal of C Battery to Vancouver, but we of the new town of Kamloops, who for two years past have variably watched for the disintegration of the old town, are in a fit condition to commiserate with Victoria, and trust, that notwithstanding the political influences and railway pull, she will be able to hold her own. "Man proposes, but God disposes" is a saying which at the time of its promulgation expressed a great deal of truth. The hand of Providence is not as plainly visible as it once was. Human ingenuity, backed by vast aggregations of capital, render the operation of circumstances migatory and with respect to the business methods of powerful railway syndicates we may not unjustly say that man proposes but President Van Horne disposes. The removal of C Battery is but a straw, as a matter of dollars and cents. It cannot make much difference to Victoria where C Battery is located. The removal of the battery to Vancouver is significant, only as showing the ulterior designs of the rulers of Canada. But after all, would it not be the proper thing for Victoria to look the matter square in the face. "It is hard to kick against the pricks." Sentimental considerations in these latter days must perforce give way to the demands of business. What was practicable, nay desireable, when miners dotted the earth, is to day, by reason of the presence of the "iron horse" unavailable. What nature and the H. B. Co. regarded available forty years ago as a trading post, may form changed conditions of transportation be relegated to a mere land mark. If these things be true, thus is the "hand-writing already on the wall," and Victoria had best look after herself. She cannot afford to procrastinate; she must prepare to meet the inevitable, and endeavor to offset the loss of commercial prestige by the introduction of other features of business. If Victoria cannot retain her commercial supremacy by reason of location and corporate greed, she must rustle or incontinently throw up the sponge. It is very difficult to imagine Victoria of less importance than at present. People are just beginning to learn of her beautiful climate and her picturesque environs. Vancouver island, of which she is the gem, possesses unlimited resources in the shape of coal. Victoria has the dry dock, and it is within her precincts that politicians "most do congregate." She is possessed of solid men; within her limits lies the wealth of the province. Victoria cannot be torn down in a day. But if she should not succeed in enforcing the subversion of natural laws to force trade, let her bridge the straits and render Esquimalt the dumping ground of commerce.

CANADIAN NEWS.

Latest Happenings in the Eastern Provinces.

Trouble has arisen in the congregation of the Rev. Mr. Jeffrey, Methodist minister, Toronto, owing to the declarations said to have been made by that clergyman for intemperance.

The bronze statute of Rev. Dr. Egerton Ryerson, to be unveiled shortly in front of the Normal School, Toronto, has arrived there. The figure of Dr. Ryerson is nine feet ten inches in height, and the statue and accessories weigh 3,343 pounds, over a ton and a half. Dr. Ryerson stands as if addressing an audience. His right hand extends as if in oratorical gesture and the left one holds a book. The right foot is advanced. On a pedestal bearing on one side the arms of the province of Ontario lie, one on the other, several books. The clergyman wears his low cut, buttoned, double breasted frock coat the flowing robes of a doctor of divinity.

The eighth anniversary of Rev. Mr. Wild's pastorate of Bond street Congregational church, Toronto, was celebrated on the 7th by the opening of a new $20,000 school-room. Since Dr. Wild took charge the church membership has increased from 150 to nearly 800.

A new lease between lumber mill owners and the government, with regard to the water privileges of the Chaudiere Falls, Ottawa, has been drawn up, and is now before the council. It is stated that the government are determined that lumbermen shall pay in future a sum commensurate with the advantages they enjoy.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown—to-day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its' cures are marvelous. *

The Right Time.

Probably there is no period in life more important for the mental and moral training of youths than that between eight and seventeen years of age. If the spring-time of life is well employed, good results may be expected in after years. No better preparation can be afforded boys in this province than that which may be obtained at Corrig School, which is already largely patronized, and which is weekly increasing in number

WANTS TO FIGHT.

Berlin, Oct. 18—Prof. Von Bergmann has caused it to be known that though he refuses to prosecute Dr. Mackenzie he does not object to fighting a duel if it be considered that honor demands it. The National Zeitung states that Dr. Von Bergmann and Gerhardt have declined the suggestion of the public prosecutor to have Dr Mackenzie and his German publisher indicted for libel. They declare Dr. Mackenzie's statements recoil upon himself and they profess to be anxious that the book be given the fullest publicity.

The police of Berlin have seized all English and French copies of Dr. Mackenzie's book.

DOCTORS DISAGREE.

Berlin, Oct. 18—Professor Verchow and Dr. Waldeiger have signed a statement declaring that the protocol which was drawn up after the post mortem examination of the remains of the Emperor Frederick did not mention an abcess in the cavity of the trachea and that none existed. These physicians also state that the tissues in which Dr. Mackenzie asserts Dr. Bergman made a false passage while attempting to insert a canula were not cicatrized. The trachea, they state, was opened to the bronchial tubes.

Berlin, Oct. 18—The corner stone of a mausoleum for Emperor Frederick was laid at Potsdam to-day in the presence of the Empress, the ex-Empress, and the Royal Princesses.

IN MEMORY OF FREDERICK.

Berlin, Oct. 18—The municipal authorities of Berlin presented an address to Empress Frederick to-day, stating that $25,000 had been granted to found an institute in memory of the late Emperor Frederick. The precise objects for which the institute would be designed they would leave to the choice of the noble partner of Emperor Frederick's efforts in behalf of his people's welfare. The ex-Empress was deeply moved by the address, and expressed her thanks for the presentation. She promised to do her utmost to make the institute useful to the people.

GERMANY AND BRITAIN.

London, Oct. 18—Lord Salisbury has at last deemed it advisable to return to the foreign office and ascertain what business can be of such importance as to occasion the daily visit from the German ambassador. Lord Salisbury came in to-day from his country seat at Hatfield in response to a letter from Count VonHotzfeldt, and the two had a prolonged interview. It is understood that the Count formally complained to the English premier and foreign secretary of the publishing in England of a fac simile of the Emperor's complaint of Dr. Bergmann. This complaint was written by the late Emperor on a slip of paper, which he handed Dr. Mackenzie, and which, though the latter did not publish in his hand book, he exhibited to a number of his friends. The paper with the fac simile of the late Emperor's handwriting was printed in London. Lord Salisbury, however, it is stated, repudiated all complicity in its publication on behalf of himself and the English Royal family. The German ambassador then inquired as to the truth of the report that Princess Victoria of Prussia was to be married shortly at Windsor. Lord Salisbury declared that he had never heard any such report, but promised to make inquiry into the matter. It is evident that the relations between the British and Prussian courts are becoming critical and that the English premier will have his hands full in making explanations and smoothing matters between the Queen and her headstrong grandson.

IMPROVED PROSPECT.

London, Oct. 18—Canadian securities have advanced during the week under improved general prospects. The Dominion issues have all risen. Manitoba and Quebec bonds have recovered slightly. The new order of the Supreme Court operating from October 24th, enabling trustees to invest in colonial securities is expected to have a beneficial influence on Dominion issues.

THE LAW INTERPRETED.

San Francisco, Oct. 17—Three Chinamen who arrived here last week from Seattle on the steamer Umatilla were refused landing. It appears the Chinamen took passage for this port and had no desire or intention to go elsewhere, and though the Umatilla touched at Victoria, B. C., the Chinamen did not go ashore. District Attorney Carey argued against their being landed, on the ground that Chinese could be taken to out of the way points and then picked up by vessels and brought in here.

Judge Sawyer, however, ordered them landed. It was plain enough, he said, that the Chinese had not gone to a foreign port of their own account, or had any intention to do so.

Judge Hoffman, who occupies the bench, added, that otherwise a Chinaman who happened to be on a vessel that was driven into a foreign port by stress of weather would be deprived of his right to continue on the voyage to the port for which he embarked.

The steamer Bertha arrived here to-day from Kodiak, Alaska, with ninety Chinese on board, who were taken to Alaska from this city last spring to work in the salmon canneries. The master of the steamer stated that the Chinamen had not been off American soil since they left, but Collector Hager refused to allow them to land, and at once telegraphed to the Treasury Department at Washington for instructions.

North Arm Notes.

North Arm, Oct. 15—The past week has been quite showery, but this morning has the appearance of a spell of fine weather.

Nearly all the crop has been safely gathered, but some dilatory ones have been caught as usual with the bars down.

Threshing is now the order of the day, but as there is only one machine to do the work many farmers are impatiently awating their turn.

The Methodist people are erecting a new parsonage on Lulu Island near the Town Hall. The building is 20 feet by 28 and is now ready for the rafters.

Large flocks of wild geese, ducks and sand hill cranes are beginning to put in an appearance, and the sportsmen are now in their glory.

The British Columbia Directory.

A new directory is now being compiled for the province of British Columbia. It will contain full descriptions and reliable information of the various places, besides an accurate list of the residents, &c., a personal canvas having been made by Thomas Draper. Owing to the large increase in the province, the volume will be at least double the thickness of previous years. R. T. Williams, Publisher, 28 Broad street. *

A PIONEER GONE.

Ex-Chief Engineer Chas J. Phillips Passes Away.

At 11:30 this morning, Charles J. Phillips, ex-Chief Engineer of the Victoria Fire Department, died at his residence, Yates street. The deceased was connected with the fire department for 26 years and was Chief Engineer for three terms. He held different offices in the volunteer department and was foreman of the Deluge engine company for many years. He took more than ordinary pride in the positions held in the department, and was the recipient of numerous medals and cards of thanks for his successful efforts to advance the interests of the department, of which he held the position of Chief for so long a period. He was a whole-souled man, and was ever ready to assist the poor and needy. He was attacked last year with the fatal illness which carried him off, and recovered sufficiently to make his many friends believe that a long life was before him. The cause of his death was a cold caught at a fire which took place at Adam Innes' barn on Government street. Deceased was 47 years of age and has been engaged in the hotel business for a number of years at the corner of Broad and Johnson street. A few days ago he disposed of his business to his brother, W. Phillips, and retired to his residence on Yates street, where he was attacked with the sudden illness which took him off. The deceased will be long remembered by the old volunteer firemen and his ever courteous manner made him a general favorite with the community. Flags over the engine houses floated at half-mast this afternoon as a mark of respect for the ex-chief. The funeral will take place on Sunday next under the auspices of the Ancient Order of Foresters.

FROM LORNE CREEK.

Some Interesting Mining News—The Flumes Paying Wages.

John Saayea arrived from Lorne Creek last night on the steamer Nell and furnished the following information: Messrs. Sayyea, J. Bryant and James Brown left this city last April to prospect on ground which had been worked by them for three years on Lorne Creek above the canyon. Machinery was used and two large overshot wheels did the pumping and hoisting. Manual labor was not to be had and Mr. Saayea with his associates were compelled to stop work on Oct. 1st after sinking a shaft 64 feet deep. Found small prospects of gold, silver and copper, and were very close to bed-rock when operations were suspended.

The Short Bend Company, Dave French and James Dempster, are at the center of the canyon and have made wages for the season.

The Blind Gulch Company is bringing water from a creek a mile distant and intend working through the winter. A company below the canyon made $3 a day during the season. Another company above the Short Bend claim were driven out by water. There are ten men on the creek and five will winter there.

The Islander.

A telegram was received at the C. P. N. office this morning stating that their new steamer, the Islander, arrived at Rio de Janeiro on Wednesday last and proceeded to Valparaiso. The officers and crew were all well.

Purchase of a Thoroughbred.

Mr. Thos. Cunningham, of New Westminster, has purchased from Capt. Revely the fine Jersey heifer Duchess of Westminster which carried off first prize over many competitors at the Provincial Exhibition. Mr. Cunningham intends to continue adding to his herd of thoroughbreds until it ranks equal to any on the coast.

For Chief of Police.

Edward Pearson, a well-known pioneer and a J. P. of the province for sixteen years, recently residing at Boston Bar, but now of Victoria, is an applicant for the position of Chief of Police, now vacant. Mr. Pearson is well and favorably known to all old residents.

Capt. Adams, lately of the Sardonyx, will also apply for the situation, and there will no doubt be others.

From Skeena River.

The steamer Nell, Capt. Holmes, arrived from Skeena river and way ports at 10 o'clock last night with the following passengers: John Sayyea, A McNeill, R Draney, Geo Pearson, R Williams, J Hoeman, G Hunt, Cook, MacLeod and Murray. Three Indian witnesses were brought down from Hazelton to give evidence at the forthcoming assizes in shooting of Kitwancool Jim by Special Officer Green. The steamer brought 2,700 cases of salmon from River's Inlet for T. Shotbolt, and a quantity of oil and furs for the Hudson Bay Company.

In Durance Vile.

Mrs. Kate LeLievre and Mrs. Jalefs, the women arrested last week for smuggling opium, are still in Sheriff Cochrane's charge at Seattle. Mrs. LeLievre's son and Mrs. Jalef's husband arrived at Seattle on Wednesday, but did not bring along the necessary bondsmen. They will return and attempt to secure bail. It is understood that they will demand of the leading smugglers of Victoria that they go security for the women's appearance when wanted. It is reliably reported that Mrs. Jalefs will throw herself on the mercy of the court and plead guilty.

Visit to the Schools.

The High and Central schools were visited by Supt. Pope and Mr. Carrigan, Chairman of the Board of Supervisors of schools, for Boston, Mass. The stranger expressed himself delighted with what he saw, and returns home with a pleasant recollection of his school visit. In conversation with him afterwards he made some statements that may be useful to our school authorities here. All engagements in Boston are permanent, certificates are for life, and promotions of pupils from one grade to another is made without any fixed percentage, the circumstances of individual cases being taken into consideration, to prevent the discouraging effect of remaining too long in one room, or as he expressed it, "to give him a chance" The average time for a full course in the Primary is eight years and High School is four years, being more time than we give to the same course of study. The Superintendent of Education gets a salary of $4000; Inspectors $3800; Principals of large schools, $1800 to $3000 a year.

The "Islander's" Route.

"While in Vancouver, British Columbia, I learned a few items of interest to the people of Puget Sound," said Captain Bullens, to the Post-Intelligencer. "Among the things which I learned was this: "On the arrival of the steamer Islander, she will be placed on the route from Vancouver to Port Townsend via Victoria, making the round trip daily, with close connections with the Canadian Pacific railway. At Port Townsend she will make close connections with the steamer Premier for Seattle and Tacoma. The Premier, being under the American flag, can run anywhere on American waters, and will probably touch at the more important mill ports. The Islander is described as a most beautiful and rapid steamer. She can run 20 miles an hour when necessary, and will have no difficulty in making the round trip daily between Vancouver and Port Townsend, stopping an hour each way at Victoria. The Premier is a good, safe, comfortable boat, and will do good service on the Sound. It looks as though the Canadian Pacific Railway Company was not only willing to do the carrying business of this section, but also willing to furnish the people ample facilities for shipping and receiving freight."

SUICIDE.

C. F. Wooten Ends His Life with Poison in the Pritchard House.

For the past two months a man going by the name of Whittaker has been staying at the Pritchard House. He occupied room No. 6 on the second floor and was a very quiet, temperate man. When spoken to regarding his former residence he stated that he was a miner from Nevada. Mr. Jones, one of the proprietors of the Pritchard House noticed that the man did not put in an appearance around the place since Wednesday morning and thought he had left the city. This morning at 6 o'clock Mr. Marshall and Mr. Jones went up-stairs to the man's room and found the door locked. They procured a duplicate key and opened the door. On striking a match they discovered the man lying dead in his bed with the blankets drawn over his head. Mr. Jones felt his forehead which was cold. The police were immediately called by telephone and officer Mitten arrived in a few minutes. On lighting a lamp in the room a small soda water bottle was found with the dregs of a brownish liquid, presumably laudanum. The following letter was lying on the top of the bureau:

Oct. 17, 1888.

To any Lodge of F. & A. M. of Victoria, B. C:

Please give me a decent burial. I am a member and P. M. of Washoe Lodge No. 2, Washoe City, Nevada, U. S. A., and send your bill to my Lodge. You will please inform James Twaddle, Tulare City, Tulare County, Cal., of this and instruct him to tell my wife. I ask her forgiveness. No one to blame but myself. This is a cold world. Good bye, Josie, good bye. May God bless you and protect you. I have disgraced you. Forgive me. That is all. FRANK.

C. F. WOOTEN.

Known in Victoria as Whittaker. Good bye, love, good bye. FRANK.

Coroner Jackson was notified and will hold an inquest on the remains. The Chinaman attending to the rooms went into Wooten's room yesterday morning. He saw everything as it was found this morning, and seeing the man in the bed thought he was sleeping. The Chinaman left the room and locked the door behind him. The dead man was about 50 years of age with a stubby dark beard. His height is about 5 feet 10 inches, and the proprietors of the Pritchard House say that he was of a very retiring disposition. During the past week he acted very strangely and a vacant stare was noticed in his eyes. He was not a hard drinker and was well liked by those acquainted with him since his arrival in this city about two months ago.

THE INQUEST.

At 2:25 this afternoon Coroner Jackson held an inquest on the remains. The following jurymen were sworn: B. Pettingill, John Partridge, W. Whittaker, T. Deasy, J. Fullerton and W. Munsie. Mr. Whittaker was chosen as foreman. The jury proceeded to Mr. Storey's undertaking rooms and viewed the body which was in an advanced state of decomposition.

J. B. Jones was the first witness called —I am an hotel-keeper. The man came to the Pritchard House two months ago; registered under the name of C. Whittaker; he is a miner and always had plenty of money and was not addicted to drinking or gambling. He was steady in his habits; was never sick and nothing unusual was noticed about him until two or three days ago. Yesterday I missed him. When I came to the house this morning I spoke to Mr. Marshall and asked him whether he had seen deceased during the night, he said no. I then looked at the check rack and saw his key there. We went to the room and found the door locked; unlocked the door and felt his forehead and found him dead. I then telephoned for the police and the coroner. Officer Mitten took charge of the corpse.

To Mr. Pettingill—Saw an empty soda bottle and a letter on the bureau.

To Mr. Munsie—The door was locked by a Chinaman.

Dr. W. Redmond—I am a registered medical practioner. This morning about 10 o'clock I was notified by the coroner to make an examination on the body of a man found dead in the Pritchard House; found deceased in room No. 6; he was covered with clothes and lying on his left side in an easy position, quite dead and had been for 48 hours; saw no marks of a struggle, nor marks on the body due to violence; the police officer handed me a ginger beer bottle found in the room; it was nearly empty; but contained about half a drachm of dark fluid; there was no smell at the time from the bottle; carefully corked the bottle; there being no accommodations at the house I had the body removed to Mr. Storey's undertaking rooms. On opening the body I found the organs congested and stomach empty; there was no marks of corrosive poison about the mouth or stomach; shortly afterwards on removing the cork from the bottle I noticed the smell of opium; I disposed to think that death was caused by narcotic poison.

To Mr. Pettingill—A small quantity of opium or morphine would kill the man. I kept the stomach and a portion of the liver in case any further examination is necessary.

To Mr. Partridge—I ordered the removal of the body.

W. T. Marshall—I am night barkeeper at the Pritchard House; deceased came to the place two months ago; he arrived on the Seattle boat and registered as C. F. Whittaker; have seen him every night since. On the night of the 17th he asked for the EVENING TIMES; gave him the paper which he read for an hour; he then said "give me a drink of whisky. I think I will go to bed and have a good night's rest." This was about 7:20; he wished me good night and went up stairs. Between 2 and 3 o'clock next morning a gentleman asked for a room; went up stairs; went to the room opposite the one occupied by deceased; he was snoring so heavily that I thought he would waken everyone on the floor; shook the door; received no answer. Looked over the transom and saw him lying in the position as he was found this morning; Mr. Jones remarked this morning that he had not seen Whittaker all day yesterday. I said: "we will go and look at his room, for last night he was snoring loud enough to wake up the whole house." We went up and found the door locked; I came down and got the key and opened the door; went in the room and found the man dead. There was a bottle on the bureau and a letter which he had written. Deceased had a key which was found on the bureau this morning.

Mr. Whittaker said the body should not have been removed from the room in which it was found until the jury examined it.

The coroner said he gave no permission for the removal of the body.

The letter left on the bureau was then read by Mr. W. Jackson.

The coroner said the latter was true in so far as the part relating to the membership in the Masonic order was concerned.

Mr. Moss said he searched the records of the Grand Lodge of Nevada and found that C. F. Wooten was expelled in 1883; but it also shows that Council F. Wooten is a Past Master in good standing. The wires are down and no answer could be received from the Nevada lodge.

The jury decided that he came to his death by his own hands.

The police received a pawn ticket from A. A. Aaranson showing that Wooten pawned a pistol and belt on Tuesday night. It is presumed that he lost all his money and becoming despondent swallowed a dose of opium.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

The First Case—A Fine Imposed on the Owner.

In the police court this morning Joseph Phoenix was charged with wanton cruelty to an animal. The information was laid by Mr. W. H. Mason, on behalf of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. Rev. Archdeacon Scriven, President, and Mr. R. Jones, of the Society, were in court. Mr. Yates, of Messrs. Yates & Jay, appeared for the prosecution.

W. H. Mason said he was Secretary of the Society and heard that defendant was ill-using a sick horse; went to see the horse and found that he had been drawing a cart with a ton of scrap iron. The horse was suffering and appeared to have glanders; it was discharging copiously from the nose and was in a terrible condition and unfit to draw an empty cart.

Richard Jones said he saw a horse in a dray on Wednesday morning; a number of people drew his attention to the horse which was suffering from glanders or epizootic; a Chinaman had been driving the animal and the defendant was present; the load on the cart weighed about 2000 pounds; the horse would not move, and the Chinaman was unloading the cart because the horse could not move.

D. McLean said he saw a horse coming along wharf street in charge of a Chinaman; the horse was drawing a load of railroad iron weighing a ton; the horse would walk a few steps and stop; defendant came along and took the horse from the Chinaman; he took the lines and when the horse reached Fort street Phoenix stopped the animal; the Chinaman unloaded some of the iron; Phoenix then tried to drive the animal, but it would not go; the horse looked sick and ill-fed.

R. B. Andrews said he saw a Chinaman driving a horse on Wednesday morning; the animal would walk three or four feet and stop; the horse was sick, weak and in very poor condition. Saw a white man take the horse from the Chinaman.

Alex. Anderson—Heard a noise on Wednesday morning on Wharf street; saw defendant take the horse from the Chinaman; he took the lines and struck the horse over the hind legs; the animal was discharging from the nostrils and was very sick.

Phoenix said the horse was not sick when it started out; as soon as he found that the horse was sick he took it to the side of the street, unloaded the iron and took the horse home.

Lee, a Chinaman, said: I took charge of the horse for defendant, and drove him along Wharf street; he went all right for a number of blocks and then stopped; the horse is not sick at all and worked yesterday; witness feeds the horse.

To Mr. Yates—I guess there was one ton on the dray; about one hour before the horse stopped he looked sick; I was in gaol once for robbery; took charge of horses at the race track for one year; the defendant said the horse looked sick and took it out of the dray; took the iron from the Albion Iron Works.

His Honor told Phoenix to bring the horse to the door of the court.

Mr. Yates said he sent a veterinary surgeon to look at the horse; defendant told Mr. Blanchard that the horse was sent into the country.

The horse was brought up and examined by the magistrate. A fine of $5 and $5.75 costs was imposed.

Union Mine Saw Mill.

A correspondent writing from the Union Mines, under date of October 10th, says that the first log was sawn this afternoon in the Union Mines saw mill, at present in course of erection. Everything worked to the satisfaction of the proprietors, Messrs. R. Grant & Co., and great credit is due to Mr. Davis, the millwright, and the other mechanics employed in the work for the satisfactory manner in which the mill sprang into a thing of life. The mill has plenty of engine and boiler power and will no doubt turn out 15,000 feet of lumber per day when in full blast. The work at the mines is going ahead in great shape and the right-of-way is all ready for tracklaying to commence.

Smallpox Reports.

A report has been in circulation for a few days, says the Columbian, to the effect that Dr. D. McLean, physician in charge of the smallpox patients, was down with the disease. Up to 7 o'clock this evening Dr. Bentley, Provincial Health Officer, had received no intelligence on the subject, and he considers it nothing more than a wild rumor as his orders to Mr. James Ellard were that he should report such an event forthwith.
